

Utilities Board of Oneonta, Alabama

Highway 132 Sanitary Sewer Rehabilitation

Planning, design, construction administration, and resident inspection of a gravity sanitary sewer rehabilitation project to reduce infiltration, inflow, and eliminate clogging problems in the the City of Oneonta, Alabama, including:

- Removal of roots from existing sewer lines
- Point repairs on main, lines, and service laterals
- Locating, exposing, and rehabilitating existing manholes
- Sewer line replacement where necessary
- Television, cleaning, inspection, and rehabilitation as necessary to restore line capacity.

Approximate Project Cost: $325,000