

Utilities Board of Oneonta, Alabama

Washington, Ingram, & Adams Avenues Sanitary Sewer Replacement

Planning, design, construction administration, and resident inspection of a gravity sanitary sewer replacement serve existing customers and new developments located in the City of Oneonta, Alabama, including:

- Approximately 4,000 linear feet of 8" gravity sewer
- Approximately 20 new precast concrete manholes
- Approximately 4,000 linear feet of service line replacement
- Approximately 3,200 linear feet of road re-paving
- ADECA CDBG Funding

Approximate Project Cost: $500,000